Theatre Design BA 2011

Upon successful completion of this concentration, students will: •Demonstrate a working understanding that design is a collaborative process that requires close co-operation between the designers, the director, technical team and performers on a theatrical production. •Demonstrate familiarity with multiple design disciplines (costume, lighting or scenic design) though students may focus their work in one area. •Demonstrate a fluent knowledge of technical theatre and theatrical drawing; including, rendering, and drafting. •Articulate knowledge of art and theatre history and dramatic theory. •Have experienced a range of production responsibilities provided to the theatrical design students by the ample opportunities to work on Departmental productions.

43 credits are required to complete this major. A grade of "C" or better is required in all major coursework.
