MvmntPatAnalysis Cert 13

13 credits required. Grade of "B" or better required in all courses. CGPA of 3.0 required.

The Movement Pattern Analysis Consultant Certificate (MPACC) program is multi-modal education for body and mind. Coursework is delivered in a small group setting by qualified Movement Pattern Analysis consultants and Arts Entertainment and Media Management faculty. Individual tutorials round out the educational process by providing personal guidance in curriculum areas such as movement observation and analysis, profile interpretation, and consultative strategies with individuals and groups. Student learning outcomes include the following:

- Observe, identify, and analyze specific habitual patterns of movement/non-verbal communication.
- Understand the theory and framework of Movement Pattern Analysis.
- Explore and apply interviewing techniques applicable to Movement Pattern Analysis.
- Interpret the patterns of movement/non-verbal communication through the Movement Pattern Analysis framework.
- Understand team analysis and team building principles through Movement Pattern Analysis and their application into management consultation.
- Develop a business plan to consult and apply MPA in the community.

At conclusion, students will complete a team building project in the community applying the principles of Movement Pattern Analysis to select members of the team, place them appropriately, offer career guidance to managers, develop managerial talent and form an executive team.
